What is a biblical worldview?

A biblical worldview (or a Christian worldview) is a worldview based on God's unchanging Word. Since God is the Creator of everything in heaven and earth, He is the standard for truth. God is all-powerful, all-knowing, and unchanging.

The Bible contains the words of God, and God is Truth. Therefore, we can trust what it says (John 17:17 📖). 2 Timothy 3:16 📖 states that "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God."

Inspiration means that God "breathed it out." The Holy Spirit guided and directed humans to write down and preserve His words through Scripture.

- Centrist

For some, this word refers to more moderate, tempered and reasonable voices in America's political conversation - especially those individuals attempting to take a position between the extremes.

For others, the word suggests a potentially worrisome imperative or pressure that individuals 'let go' of deeper convictions on either side of the political spectrum, in favor of adopting a watered-down, morally-compromised, middle-ground mono-narrative that serves to undergird existing powers.
